Company Description

All Points Logistics (APL) headquartered in Merritt Island, FL with five primary lines of business: integrated logistics, IT, facilities and environmental services management, and professional, engineering and technical support. APL was named the 2011 Boeing Supplier of the Year and 2011 NASA Small Business Subcontractor of the year. APL was also named Kennedy Space Center's 2011 Small Business Subcontractor of the year and is a 2011 Motorola Federal Premier Partner.

In addition to their NASA experience APL provides prime and subcontractor support to Federal departments and agencies including the DoD, the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), US Army, US Navy, USAF, and the National Security Agency. Their DHS program is a small business competitive IDIQ that is run through the DHS Office of Procurement Operations in Washington, D.C. The First Source program supports the DHS mission and strategic goals that require commercial IT commodity solutions for a wide variety of applications throughout the Department and its 22 components. DHS requires access to new technological advances and business practices that may increase productivity, efficiency, and reduce costs while leveraging Department wide buying power to obtain the lowest available prices. Additionally, APL provides IT goods and services to DHS on a daily basis at the highest quality and the lowest cost.
